The desire to stop high dependence of RES on weather conditions has stimulated investment in energy storage. Pasir Panjang Cargo Terminal has completed installation of Singapore's first 2 MW energy storage systems, the local Energy Market Authority (EMA) said in its statement.

Does Singapore need energy storage systems to manage solar intermittency?

However, the minister said there is a need to “step up energy storage systems to manage solar intermittency.” Talks are currently ongoing with Sembcorp, the engineering conglomerate behind the 200MW/285MWh battery energy storage system (BESS) installation on Singapore’s Jurong Island.

Does Singapore have a reliable electricity grid?

Although Singapore has one of the most reliable electricity grids in the world, However, as Singapore looks to renewable energy and power imports to transition to a low-carbon energy system, and moves towards the electrification of its transport system, it is increasingly vital to ensure that its grid infrastructure remains stable and resilient.

What is Singapore's first utility-scale energy storage system?

Singapore’s First Utility-scale Energy Storage System Through a partnership between EMA and SP Group, Singapore deployed its first utility-scale ESS at a substation in Oct 2020. It has a capacity of 2.4 megawatts (MW)/2.4 megawatt-hour (MWh), which is equivalent to powering more than 200 four-room HDB households a day.

Does Singapore have a resilient energy grid?

The Singapore government has implemented a good number of initiatives to ensure the resilience of the energy grid, including the use of energy storage systems (“ESS”).

Will Singapore have 'giant batteries' to store 200MW of energy?

Singapore will achieve its target of having “giant batteries” to store at least 200MW of energy three years early. The 200MW system is currently being installed across two sites on Jurong Island – Banyan and Sakra. Read more about it here.
