

What is the tax increase rate for solar panels

Overview

Do solar panels qualify for a tax credit?

Under the new tax credit timeline, solar panel systems installed by December 31, 2025, will still qualify for the full 30% credit. But systems installed after that date wouldn't qualify for any tax credit at all. The federal solar tax credit is valuable because it's a dollar-for-dollar reduction of your federal tax bill.

Will solar panels be tax deductible in 2025?

In 2025, the federal Investment Tax Credit (ITC) allows homeowners to claim 30% of their solar panel system costs as a tax credit on their federal taxes. Starting January 1, 2026, the residential solar tax credit will disappear completely.

When does the residential solar tax credit end?

Under the new tax law, the Residential Solar Tax Credit will officially end on December 31, 2025. To qualify, your solar PV system must be installed and operational by this deadline. For homeowners, this change means one of the most impactful incentives for going solar—the 30% Federal Investment Tax Credit (ITC)—is going away.

What is a solar tax credit?

The federal solar tax credit, commonly referred to as the investment tax credit or ITC, allows you to claim 30% of the cost of your solar panel system as a credit to your federal tax bill. For example, if it costs $10,000 to install your solar panel system, you'll receive a $3,000 credit, which directly reduces your tax bill.

Is the solar tax credit still available in 2025?

President Trump signed his sweeping reconciliation bill into law on Independence Day, cutting the residential solar tax credit after December 31, 2025. Despite the legislative changes, the federal tax credit remains available in 2025, providing a 30% tax credit on your solar installation costs.

Are solar panels tax deductible?

Readers interested in installing solar products should use their best judgment and seek advice from a licensed tax professional. In 2025, the federal Investment Tax Credit (ITC) allows homeowners to claim 30% of their solar panel system costs as a tax credit on their federal taxes.
